DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election with traverse of Group I in the reply filed on April 14, 2008 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that group II contains all the same technical feature as group I (i.e. a connection member). This is not found persuasive because group II does not contain all the features of group I for the connection member (i.e. body panels, side walls and/or interlockable parts).

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Specification

2. A substitute specification excluding the claims is required pursuant to 37 CFR 1.125(a) because there blurred and/or blank sections on pages 1-4 and 6-14 (e.g. see page 2, line 11). This may have arisen from copying the specification, however, the examiner has no way of knowing or correcting this without applicant supplying a substitute specification to be reviewed and entered.

A substitute specification must not contain new matter. The substitute specification must be submitted with markings showing all the changes relative to the immediate prior version of the specification of record. The text of any added subject matter must be shown by underlining the added text. The text of any deleted matter must be shown by strike-through except that double brackets placed before and after the deleted characters may be used to show deletion of five or fewer consecutive characters. The text of any deleted subject matter must be shown by being placed within double brackets if strike-through cannot be easily perceived. An accompanying clean version (without markings) and a statement that the substitute specification contains no new matter must also be supplied. Numbering the paragraphs of the specification of record is not considered a change that must be shown.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Youell et al (5222444).

Youell et al discloses a pallet comprising a top sheet 10, a base 12 and connection members 14, 16, 18 there between. See figure 1. The connection member comprise two main body panels 30 and a pairs of opposing side walls 25, 27 wherein the side walls can lock using notches 26, 28 when folded into a supporting member. See figure 5. This connection member is folded then placed between top and bottom panels to form a collapsible pallet there from. See figures 7 and 8.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 1794

6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

7. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

8. Claims 2-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Youell et al in view of WO 82/00987.

The primary reference teaches the invention substantially as recited except for the particular connection member comprising the middle panel with side walls and at least one end flap per claim 2, along with the particular size and orientation of the connection members per claims 3-11. See the 35 U.S.C. 102 rejection above.

However, WO 82/00987 discloses that a connection member per the dependent claims is known. See figures 1-3 which are substantially the same as the applicant's connection member shown in instant figures 1-3.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to Youell et al to substitute one known connection member for another in order to form a collapsible pallet therefrom. With regards to claims 12-21, it would be obvious to use as many connection members as need between the top and bottom sheet as required for a particular application. This would enable one to add strength and/or size to the pallet as needed.
